National Gallery Of Art Washington D.C. : National Gallery of Art 2017 Engagement Calendar before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised National Gallery of Art 2017 Engagement Calendar:

Over the years I have bought National Gallery of Art engagement calendars and have always enjoyed the works displayed for each week. The days of the week are large blank boxes without times or lines, allowing the writer to record a lot of information in a variety of ways. That flexibility is the best feature -- after the art! -- of these calendars. The only negative is that Saturday and Sunday appear at the bottom of each page and together occupy the space allotted for a weekday. As a result those spaces can be really cramped if one has a busy weekend schedule! The calendar is heavy paper bound by doubled-over metal rings. The finish permits the use of ballpoint pens, felt-tip pens or markers, and even fountain pens, but the writer should let the ink dry before turning the page or closing the calendar in the case of the latter two types of pens. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Lovely Engagement Calendar By Diane A. Carenas This is my second National Gallery engagement calendar I've bought. I like the size of the calendar and the arrangement of the weeks of each month which provide ample space to write my agenda. Aside from the design of the pages and extra info in the back, the main reason to buy this was how lovely the selection of art replicas chosen for each week is. Artists' names and dates of each painting are provided. The price is fair as well. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. For art lovers, this is THE BEST desk calendar By Patricia I buy one of these every year. I couldn't live without the art. It does a body good to see these images.

Featuring some of the greatest and most famous paintings from the Dutch and Italian Renaissance, French Impressionism, and American schools, as well as drawings, photographs, and sculpture, this art lover's ultimate weekly calendar showcases treasures from the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. The National Gallery of Art 2017 Engagement Calendar is spiral-bound and includes iconic holdings and exciting new acquisitions by some of the world's most famous artists, including Vincent van Gogh, Domenico Ghirlandaio, John Singer Sargent, Berthe Morisot, Claude Monet, Camille Pissarro, Albrecht Dürer, Pieter Bruegel the Elder, Winslow Homer, Julia

Margaret Cameron, and George Caleb Bingham on each weekly spread.
